

I would like to see more band space allotted for AM usage. Sideband phone could be expanded into the Nov/Tech space giving our AM people a little more room to operate. This, if honored, would help to eliminate the annoying competition that exists now. Those beautiful AM signals would have a chance to show their quality. There should be room for everybody!